Contract of edition and assignment rights

The participant declares to be the owner of all copyright rights to the images, or if he is not the owner of these rights – that he/she has the permission of the owners and is able to use them.

The participant declares that the work sent has never been published by a publishing house and if self-produced must be printed in less than 60 copies. Books with a registration number (ISBN) will not be considered dummy and will not enter the shortlist.

Each participant authorizes Charta and, consequently, Yogurt, the promoter of the festival, to use the images of the dummy online and on the dedicated social media.

All dummies received will be treated with the maximum care, Charta declines any responsibility arising from possible theft or damage during the exposition or the shipping.

In case of Shortlist

Each participant authorizes, in the case of selection in the shortlist of Charta: a Photobook Festival, to be able to exhibit their dummy during the festival to be held from 17 to 24 July 2021 at “The Paper Room”.

Winner

The winner of the First Prize accepts the following conditions:

The copyrights of the book and the images of the project are transferred to the Associazione Culturale Paper Room, which is the tax entity on which Yogurt Editions relies. This copyright transfer is valid only for the first edition of the book.

The book will be produced and published by Yogurt Editions that will invest 5000,00 euro in its publication. Yogurt reserves the right to slightly change the design of the book and to fix its price.

Yogurt bears the costs of production, project management and sales of the first edition. In return, the author will receive 50 free copies of the book.

If the author wants to purchase other copies, besides the 50 ones received for being the winner of the first prize, he can benefit from a 40% discount on the selling price.

The profits from the sale of the book will go to Yogurt Editions and a part of them will support Yogurt's charitable initiatives.
